SPORTS AND GAMES

Tennis and table tennis are wonderful games. Young and grown-up people can play those games. They give good physiological results on the body.

Swimming is a very good form of exercise. There is a river or a swimming-pool in many towns. You may practise swimming in winter as well as in summer.

Hiking is very popular among the youth. The sun's rays, sleep and games in the open air are very important for young men. Grown-up people also like hiking. The sun and the air are good medicines.

Walking and running are very good exercises. You must breathe through your nose when you run.

ABOUT SPORT

I have a friend. His name is John Brown. He is seventeen. He is a strong boy and an excellent sportsman. Like many young English people he and his sisters are fond of sports and games.

The girls' favourite game is tennis. They belong to a good tennis club. They spend their Saturday mornings playing tennis. Last summer they played for their club and won several prizes.

John is very good at rugby, but he does not play soccer, which is more popular than rugby on the Continent. There are two kinds of football in England: soccer and rugby. We play soccer with a round ball, and rugby with an oval ball.

Sometimes John camps out with his friends for a few days in summer and they spend a week in the open air.

Golf is also very popular in England. John's father and mother like golf and hiking. All they need for hiking is a pair of good strong shoes and rucksack. In winter they enjoy winter sports: skiing, icehockey and skating.

GAMES BASKETBALL

Basketball is played in a gym or a playing ground 26x12 metres. The baskets themselves are hung 3m 05cm above the ground, at each end of the playing ground. The teams that play the game consist of 10 players each but only five of them are on the field at the same time, the others are on the benches (spare). The players can be changed as many times during the game as the captain or coach wishes. For each ball sunk into the opponents' basket during play, the team gets 2 points. Each ball sunk as a penalty is credited with one point. The game is played for 40 minutes, after the first 20 the players have a ten-minute rest. The game is won by the team that scores the most points during the game. The game is conducted by two referees. Basketball is considered to be the most emotional and graceful ball game of all.

FOOTBALL

Football (or soccer) is played almost throughout the world. In the Ukraine it is the most popular of all ball games. Amateur teams are organised at almost every work place, department, house or street where there are eleven boys or more. The game is played in streets, parks, playgrounds, etc. But this is not sport of course, this is only play, or exercises in the game that has millions of supporters.

We have big league games which is real sport and second division games too.

Each team consists of 13-15 players, 11 active and four benchers. One of the players is the goalkeeper, the rest are field players, six forwards, three halfbacks and two fullbacks. The game is played on a field 110 metres long and 60 metres wide. At each end there is a goal which is guarded by a goalkeeper who prevents the opponents' balls from entering the goal. The goalkeeper is the only player who has the right to use his hands to touch, catch or hit the ball or to throw it out into the field. The rest of the players are allowed to kick the ball or touch it with any part of their bodies except their hands and arms. The players of each team pass the ball between themselves, interfere their opponents with the aim of scoring as many goals themselves as they possibly can and not allowing their opponents to score at all. The game is played for 90 minutes, two halves of 45 minutes each with an interval of 10 minutes in-between. The team that scores the most goals is the winner. The game is conducted by One referee and two linesmen.

HEAVY ATHLETICS

Wrestling, boxing and weight-lifting in our country are called "heavy athletics" because of their strain. These events are for men only. Our wrestlers are among the world's best in all styles: classical (French), free style and judo.

There are many different kinds of wrestling in our republics and all of them have their own rules. Among the most interesting of them is "Sash wrestling" or "Trinta". As a tradition all volunteers may enter a contest and meet each other in strict order according to drawn lots. The contest proceeds in Olympic order. All losers "out", while the winners continue till the last is out. When the last loser is thrown on his back the winner receives a live ram as his prize. He then carries the ram on his shoulders around the mats, then the ram is roasted and eaten by all the participants.

Mongolian wrestling is also of great interest. It differs from "Sash wrestling" and most other styles because here tripping is allowed as well as many other forbidden procedures (in classical wrestling). The oldest wrestlers of past years are the referees. The winner must rub his opponent's shoulders to the ground thrice before being recognized as the victor. The victor then does a circle of honour, he spreads his arms like an eagle, bends forward and leaping tries to imitate the flight of an eagle. After this performance he is given the honorary name of "Young Hawk".

All types of wrestling are sports of strength, agility and wit.

To be a good boxer and expect good results one must train regularly year in and year out. His body must be perfectly developed internally as well as externally. He must have the legs of a dancer, the body of an athlete and the head of a chess player.

The boxing gloves in our country have a very fluffy padding which makes knock-outs almost impossible. The boxers must think not only of hitting but of their defence as well because score-points are given for blows received as for blows given, point for point no matter of what force they are, and the one who scores the most points wins the bout.

Weight-lifting is one of the best ways to build up a man's body. You will notice that weight-lifters are not only strong muscled but also square shouldered and full chested. They develop strong hearts and healthy lungs of great capacity.
